(7) The Office of the Attorney General shall staff the commission.

Section 4. Section 63G-12-202 is enacted to read:

63G-12-202. General powers and duties of the commission.

(1) The commission shall:

(a) conduct a thorough review of the economic, legal, cultural, and educational impact of illegal immigration on the state and its political subdivisions;
(b) conduct a thorough examination of Utah and federal laws relating to immigration,
migration, and guest worker programs;
(c) develop a comprehensive, coordinated, and sustainable state plan to address:
(i) immigration and the use of migrant workers in the state; and
(ii) integration of immigrants;
(d) make recommendations to the governor and the Legislature as to proposed legislation to implement the state plan described in Subsection (1)(c):
(i) consistent with the respective constitutional powers, rights, and responsibilities of the United States and of the state; and
(ii) to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the state;
(e) advise the governor and the Legislature on proposed legislation related to immigration:
(i) for the purpose of encouraging a comprehensive, coordinated, and sustainable state response to issues related to immigration; and
(ii) upon request of:
(A) the governor;
(B) the president of the Senate;
(C) the speaker of the House of Representatives;
(D) the minority leader of the Senate; or
(E) the minority leader of the House of Representatives; and
(f) comply with Part 3, Migrant Worker Visa Pilot Project.

(2) (a) The commission may request a state agency to provide the commission with information available to the state agency that the commission considers necessary to discharge the commission's duties under this section.

(b) A state agency shall cooperate with the commission to furnish the commission with the information requested under Subsection (2)(a):

(i) to the extent not inconsistent with law;
(ii) within the limits of the state agency's statutory authority; and
(iii) on as timely a basis as is necessary to accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

(3) (a) In performing its powers and duties, the commission may invite testimony from the governor, legislators, state agencies, and members of the public.

(b) The commission may consult with experts or other knowledgeable individuals in the public or private sector on any matter related to the commission's powers and duties under this section.

(c) The commission may hold one or more public hearings that it considers advisable and in locations within the state that it chooses to afford interested persons an opportunity to appear and present views with respect to any subject relating to the commission's powers and duties under this section.

(4) (a) The commission shall report periodically to the Legislature and governor on its activities and recommendations.

(b) The commission shall submit an initial report to the Legislature and governor no later than six months from the date of the first meeting of the commission.

(c) The commission shall submit a first annual report to the Legislature and governor six months from the day on which the initial report is submitted, or as soon as practicable after that date.

(d) After the first annual report, the commission shall annually submit reports to the Legislature and the governor.
198 (e) The commission shall provide any report submitted under this Subsection (4) to the 199 public upon request.

Section 5. Section 63G-12-203 is enacted to read:
201
63G-12-203. Collaboration on integration of immigrants.
202 (1) Consistent with the state plan described in Subsection 63G-12-202(1)(c), the 203 commission shall:
204 (a) work collaboratively with federal, state, and local governments to facilitate 205 integration of immigrants in the state; and 206 (b) work collaboratively with businesses and community organizations to ensure that 207 public input into the process is consistently maintained with regard to integration of 208 immigrants.
209 (2) The commission shall evaluate the structure and organization of government in 210 Utah including state agencies, independent entities, political subdivisions, and school districts, 211 and advise the Legislature and governor on how best to achieve immigrant integration in the
212 delivery of services and programs in a cost neutral manner.
213 (3) In its examination of immigrant integration in the state, the commission shall 214 identify any measures that will bring enhanced lawfulness, economy, efficiency, and 215 accountability to government operations.
216
Section 6. Section 63G-12-301 is enacted to read:
217
Part 3. Migrant Worker Visa Pilot Project
218
63G-12-301. Migrant Worker Visa Pilot Project.
219 (1) With the assistance of the attorney general, and subject to Section 63G-12-302, the 220 governor may negotiate and enter into a memorandum of understanding with the government
221 of the State of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, through its Migrant Attention Center to create a pilot
222 project known as the "Migrant Worker Visa Pilot Project" under which Utah businesses may 223 obtain legal foreign migrant workers through use of United States nonimmigrant visas.
224 (2) The commission shall recommend to the Legislature and the governor policies and 225 programs that will educate, encourage, support, and facilitate Utah businesses in need of enrolled Copy

nonimmigrant temporary workers to participate in the pilot project.

Section 7. Section 63G-12-302 is enacted to read:

63G-12-302. Requirements for pilot project and pilot project memorandum of understanding.

(1) Under the pilot project memorandum of understanding, the governor may commit the state, including the commission, to work directly with officials of the government of the State of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, including the Migrant Attention Center, to encourage, facilitate, and support the migration of legal Mexican migrant workers from the State of Nuevo Leon to Utah for the purpose of filling jobs with Utah businesses most in need of skilled and unskilled migrant labor.

(2) The pilot project and the pilot project memorandum of understanding shall:

(a) be compatible with the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1101 et seq., and federal policies, procedures, and requirements for issuing United States nonimmigrant visas to Mexicans qualified to participate in the pilot project, with particular attention to the following:

(i) a Utah business hiring an alien through the pilot project shall demonstrate and certify that there are not sufficient workers where that labor is to be performed who are able, willing, qualified, and available at the time of application for a United States nonimmigrant visa; and

(ii) the employment of the alien will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of workers in Utah who are similarly employed;

(b) require that the State of Nuevo Leon will provide Mexican migrant workers to Utah businesses who meet certain requirements, including that each migrant worker:

(i) meets the legal requirements of federal law with regard to eligibility for a United States nonimmigrant visa;

(ii) passes a criminal background check;

(iii) undergoes standardized testing to satisfy the hiring Utah business that the migrant worker possesses the requisite level of education or skill required for the job to be filled;
(iv) is issued a tamper-proof identification that includes personal information, photo, fingerprint, visa number, and an expiration date; and

(v) will be notified by the Migrants Attention Center of the State of Nuevo Leon before the expiration date of the United States nonimmigrant visa of the date the migrant worker is required to return to Mexico; and

(c) if a migrant worker fails to return to Mexico before expiration of the migrant worker's United States nonimmigrant visa, require the Migrants Attention Center of the State of Nuevo Leon to notify:

(i) the Utah business that hires the migrant worker;

(ii) the advisory group created in accordance with Section 63G-12-303; and

(iii) United States Immigration and Custom Enforcement.

Section 8. Section 63G-12-303 is enacted to read:

63G-12-303. Commission advisory group to conduct study -- Commission to prepare recommendations.

(1) (a) The commission shall create an advisory group to perform the studies required by this section.

(b) The commission shall appoint at least one member of the commission to the advisory group.

(c) The advisory group may work jointly with a similar group of the State of Nuevo Leon, Mexico.

(d) A member of the advisory group may not receive per diem and travel expenses.

(2) The advisory group shall:

(a) study the process and results of the pilot project;

(b) study the impact of existing federal law on the ability to meet the needs of Utah businesses and Mexican migrant workers;

(c) study the current United States nonimmigrant visa application process from both the employer and employee perspective to understand:

(i) the strengths and weaknesses of the existing law; and
(ii) the United States nonimmigrant visa process and the implications to regional employment and security;
(d) document the state and regional economic impact and security implications of existing law and processes;
(e) educate both Utah and the State of Nuevo Leon populations on issues to create alignment around a shared vision; and
(f) report its findings annually to the commission in a detailed report that includes recommendations to the commission on how to best address the challenges of immigration, employment, and security.

(3)(a) The commission shall use the information generated by the advisory group pursuant to the pilot project to make recommendations to the governor by no later than one year after the day on which the pilot project memorandum of understanding is executed.
(b) The commission shall consider including in the recommendations:
(i) observations and market recommendations;
(ii) one or more proposals to amend existing law as necessary to accomplish the recommendations made by the commission and to meet the realities of current economic necessities;
(iii) a recommendation as to whether, and if so, to what extent, the current caps on the H-2B United States nonimmigrant visas should be raised; and
(iv) a recommendation as to whether the wait time between receiving H-2 United States nonimmigrant visas should be shortened.
(c) The governor may report the recommendations of the commission to the President of the United States, Congress, and the United States Attorney General.

Section 9. Section 63G-12-304 is enacted to read:

63G-12-304. Expansion to similar pilot projects.

(1) If one year after the pilot project memorandum of understanding is executed under Section 63G-12-301 the governor determines, after consultation with the commission, that the pilot project is successful, the governor may enter into one or more additional memorandum of understanding to create pilot projects similar to the pilot project with the State of Nuevo Leon, except that the governor may not enter into a similar pilot project memorandum of understanding with a country:

(a) designated by the United States State Department as a state sponsor of terrorism in accordance with section 6(j) of the Export Administration Act, section 40 of the Arms Export Control Act, and section 620A of the Foreign Assistance Act;

(b) against which the United States has declared war; or

(c) against which the United States has imposed sanctions as listed under a sanctions program of the Office of Foreign Assets Control within the United States Department of Treasury.

(2) After the governor has entered into one or more additional memorandum of understanding under Subsection (1), the governor, in consultation with the commission, may periodically evaluate whether to enter into additional pilot projects subject to the limitations of Subsections (1)(a) through (c).

(3) (a) A memorandum of understanding creating a similar pilot project shall comply with the requirements of Section 63G-12-302.

(b) A similar pilot project created under this section shall operate in a manner substantially similar to the pilot project with the State of Nuevo Leon implemented under this part.
