| 11:15 – 11:45 a.m. Centennial AB | The Art of Negotiation
Traditional business and legal negotiation practices have centered on an oppositional, zero-sum game approach that seeks clear winners and losers. But negotiation in the legislative realm is different in many ways, with multiple stakeholders, complex interests, and both policy and political considerations to balance. In this workshop, you will learn to identify your primary interests, and the interests of your negotiating partner, develop creative options to circumvent roadblocks, preserve relationships with your negotiating partners for future interactions and more.
Speaker: Curt Stedron, NCSL Legislative Training Institute |
| 11:45 a.m. – 12 p.m. Centennial AB | NCSL Affiliate Membership Program
Learn about an exciting new opportunity to join NCSL as part of an inaugural class of international affiliate members.
Speakers:
Stacy Householder, NCSL Leadership and International Programs
John Mahoney, NCSL Institute for International Cooperation |
| 12 – 1 p.m. Centennial D | Luncheon with NCSL Executive Committee
Graciously supported by the European Union Delegation to the United States
Welcoming Remarks: Deputy Ambassador Michael Curtis, European Union |
| 1 – 2 p.m. Centennial AB | Fortifying Democratic Institutions
Over the past decade, threats to global democracy have increased at an alarming rate as democratic norms and principles have eroded in both entrenched and nascent democracies alike. During this session, panelists will summarize the global democratic landscape with a particular focus on what role democratic institutions, and the staff and members that serve them, in protecting democracy for future generations.
Panelists:
Matthias Matthijs, Council on Foreign Relations
Michael Curtis, European Union Delegation to the United States
Moderator: Kimberly Madsen, Utah State Legislature |
| 2 – 3 p.m. Centennial AB | Global Cooperation and Conflict in Emerging Economies
This session will address both the potential for conflict and opportunities for cooperation as major powers invest in and support economic development in emerging economies. How can the international community work with local communities to ensure that true development is not sacrificed in the pursuit of broader geopolitical goals?
Speaker: Professor Singumble Muyebo, University of Denver |

Please join us at 5:30pm on Tuesday, August 2nd for a Global Celebration Reception at the Wright Room, graciously supported by the Consulate General of Canada in Denver.
Location – 535 16th St Mall #240, Denver, CO 80202.
