What to Consider When You’re Expecting More Absentee Voting Webinar
Wednesday, May 13, 2020

National Vote at Home Institute
A nonprofit organization dedicated to ensuring the security of our elections and putting voters’ needs first. Visit their Reference Library for some great materials.

U.S. Election Assistance Commission
An independent, bipartisan commission charged with developing guidance to meet the requirements of the Help America Vote Act, adopting voluntary voting system guidelines, and serving as the national clearinghouse of information on election administration. Follow the link to access their excellent resources on absentee and mail voting.

NCSL’s Voting Outside the Polling Place Report
This report provides a detailed overview of laws across the 50 states related to absentee and mail voting.

NCSL’s COVID-19 and Elections Webpage
This webpage is updated daily and tracks the latest postponements, legislation, and other changes to elections due to COVID-19.

NCSL’s The Canvass
A newsletter published by the Elections team at NCSL.

NCSL’s Blog
Follow the link to find all the blog posts from our Elections team, including our most recent post on California’s move to vote by mail for November.