2-4-104. Tense. Words in the present tense include the future tense.

2-4-201. Intentions in the enactment of statutes. (1) In enacting a statute, it is presumed that:
   (a) Compliance with the constitutions of the state of Colorado and the United States is intended;
   (b) The entire statute is intended to be effective;
   (c) A just and reasonable result is intended;
   (d) A result feasible of execution is intended;
   (e) Public interest is favored over any private interest.

2-4-202. Statutes presumed prospective. A statute is presumed to be prospective in its operation.

2-4-203. Ambiguous statutes - aids in construction. (1) If a statute is ambiguous, the court, in determining the intention of the general assembly, may consider among other matters:
   (a) The object sought to be attained;
   (b) The circumstances under which the statute was enacted;
   (c) The legislative history, if any;
   (d) The common law or former statutory provisions, including laws upon the same or similar subjects;
   (e) The consequences of a particular construction;
   (f) The administrative construction of the statute;
   (g) The legislative declaration or purpose.
