Tennessee House of Representatives
TENNESSEE PANDEMIC LESSONS

(1) INNOVATION

(2) COMMUNICATION

(3) ____________
ANNUAL ETHICS TRAINING

• TENN. CODE ANN. SECTION 3-6-113

• The Tennessee ethics commission shall provide an annual orientation ethics course concerning compliance with the laws administered and enforced by the commission for members of the general assembly who have not yet taken the orientation ethics course and shall offer an annual current issues course for members of the general assembly who have taken the orientation course.
WHISKEY
Tenn. Code Ann. § 57-2-106(a) – Whiskey “may not be advertised, described, labeled, named, sold or referred to for marketing or sales purposes as ‘Tennessee Whiskey’, ‘Tennessee Whisky’, ‘Tennessee Sour Mash Whiskey’ or ‘Tennessee Sour Mash Whisky’ unless the intoxicating liquor is:

• Manufactured in Tennessee;
• Made of a grain mixture that is at least fifty-one percent (51%) corn;
• Distilled to no more than one hundred sixty (160) proof or eighty percent (80%) alcohol by volume;
• Aged in new, charred oak barrels in Tennessee;
• Filtered through maple charcoal prior to aging;
• Placed in the barrel at no more than one hundred twenty-five (125) proof or sixty-two and one-half percent (62.5%) alcohol by volume; and
• Bottled at not less than eighty (80) proof of forty percent (40%) alcohol by volume.”
ILICIT BEHAVIOR

Pro- and Anti-suffragists believed adamantly in the righteousness of their cause, and many would resort to dishonest means to meet their ends. There was collusion, there was bribery, there was spying. The atmosphere at The Hermitage was tense and heated!

On the eighth floor, Anti-suffragists enticed legislators with free whiskey and bourbon in a de facto speak easy that came to be known as the “Jack Daniel’s Suite.” The causes of prohibition and women’s suffrage were closely linked, so they sought to persuade lawmakers with Tennessee’s favorite beverage. One morning, the suffragist leader Carrie Catt woke to find a bottle of bourbon slipped under her pillow, in an attempt to defame the Pro-suffrage cause.
Brown-Forman Produces Hand Sanitizer for Employees, Health Care Providers and First Responders

While the Research & Development (R&D) team at Brown-Forman plays an important role in building our brands, they are currently focused on a different type of product to reduce the spread of COVID-19 (coronavirus).

R&D developed, produced, and packaged hand sanitizer for our production teams to keep them safe and healthy while they are keeping our operations up and running.

All remaining sanitizer is being given to Louisville and Moore County (home to the Jack Daniel Distillery) health care providers and first responders who are on the front lines of this pandemic.
The Jack Daniel Distillery is pleased to invite you to our

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
VIRTUAL RECEPTION

Wednesday || February 24 || 7pm – 9pm CT

This virtual reception will feature a private screening of the soon-to-be released documentary, Chasing Whiskey: The Untold Story of Jack Daniel's.

We’ll email more information to you about accessing the documentary—and other fun ways for you to participate—closer to the date.

Please mark your calendars for this exclusive opportunity as we toast and honor the Tennessee Legislature.
From the Hill: Lawmakers enjoy a bottle of Jack at virtual reception

BY: SAM STOCKARD - FEBRUARY 24, 2021  4:13 PM

A pickup truck emblazoned with the Jack Daniel's Distillery logo parked in front of the Cordell Hull Legislative Office Building in February. Inside the building, officials with company gave one-fifth bottles of Jack to legislators. (Photo: Sam Stockard)
ANSWER: “[G]ifts provided to attendees at an in-state event held under Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-305(b)(8) that are not intended to be used or consumed at or during the event itself, but instead are intended to be given to the attendee for personal use outside the event, do not come within the exception set forth at Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-305(b)(8).”
TENNESSEE PANDEMIC LESSONS

(1) INNOVATION

(2) COMMUNICATION

(3) MODERATION
Doug Himes
Ethics Counsel
638 Cordell Hull Building
Nashville, TN 37243
doug.himes@capitol.tn.gov
(615) 741-1195

House Ethics Committee Webpage:
https://www.capitol.tn.gov/house/committees/ethics.aspx