Susan Parnas Frederick joined NCSL in 2000 and currently holds the title of senior federal affairs counsel. She is the Washington, D.C. staff to NCSL’s Law, Criminal Justice, and Public Safety Committee. She works to promote NCSL’s policy positions in the areas of criminal and civil justice, election and campaign finance reform, homeland security and federalism generally before the U.S. Congress, the Administration and federal agencies. She also prepares and files amicus briefs in cases of state interest in the U.S. Supreme Court and U.S. Courts of Appeals. Before coming to NCSL, Ms. Parnas Frederick was a senior legislative counsel at the National League of Cities and an attorney in private practice in Alexandria, Virginia. She received her bachelor’s degree from the University of Virginia and earned a law degree from the American University, Washington College of Law.
