2018 Election Results: What Happened and What It All Means for Immigration

Larry Benenson
Assistant Director for Immigration Policy and Advocacy
National Immigration Forum
December 4, 2018

Founded in 1982, the National Immigration Forum advocates for the value of immigrants and immigration to our nation. In service to this mission, the Forum promotes responsible federal immigration policies, addressing today’s economic and national security needs while honoring the ideals of our Founding Fathers, who created America as a land of opportunity.

For 35 years, the Forum has worked to advance sound federal immigration solutions through its policy expertise, communications outreach and coalition building work, which forges powerful alliances of diverse constituencies across the country to build consensus on the important role of immigrants in America.

2018 Election Statistics

House Popular Vote in 2018 Demonstrated Record Levels of Turnout for Both Parties
- Democrats: 60.2 million (53.3%)
- Republicans: 50.8 million (44.9%) → Democratic margin of victory: 8.4%

Previous Record – Republicans in 2010
- 44.5 million votes (6.6% margin of victory)
- In 2018, Republicans had a record turnout and still lost 40 House seats!

2018 Results in the States

- Democrats netted 7 governorships, including defeating GOP incumbents in WI and IL
- Democrats netted approximately 250 state legislative seats and picked up 6 “trifectas”
- 7 chambers flipped, all but 1 to Democrats
  - CO, ME, NH, NY Senate to Dems
  - MN and NH House to Dems
  - AK House to Republicans (by 1 vote!)

2018 Governor Election Results

State won, by party

Democrats: 23
Republicans: 27

Party control of governorships, 1958 to present

Democratic governors
Republican governors
Post-election governorships

2018 Post-Election
Immigration as an Election Issue

- Immigration was front and center at close of 2018 campaign
- President Trump focused on caravan
- Closing ad on immigrants and crime
- CNN Exit Polling:
  - Immigration rated as the #2 issue behind health care and 75% of immigration voters voted Republican.
  - BUT voters who made up minds in last few days went 53-41 for the Democratic House candidate.
- The immigration issue mobilized voters in both parties
- Record high midterm turnout for both parties
- Unclear whether turning out immigration-skeptical base saved seats or turned off swing voters

November 6: Tough Night for Prominent Anti-Immigration Voices

- Controversial anti-immigrant voices lost
  - Kelly (D) defeated Kobach (R) in KS Gov.
  - Kaine (D) defeated Stewart (R) in VA Sen.
  - Casey (D) defeated Barletta (R) in PA Sen.
  - Spanberger (D) defeated Brat (R) in VA-7
- Oregon’s “Anti-Sanctuary” ballot initiative lost by a huge margin – 62% - 37%.

But Pro-Immigration Republican Moderates Also Fared Poorly

- Noteworthy Republican immigration champions were defeated: Coffman (CO-6), Curbelo (FL-26), Denham (CA-10), Taylor (VA-2), Valadao (CA-21)
- A handful of Republicans who are immigration champions won reelection: Diaz-Balart (FL-25), Hurd (TX-23), Newhouse (WA-4)
- Several noteworthy pro-immigration Republicans retired: Flake (AZ-Sen.), Corker (TN-Sen.), Dent (PA-7), and Ros-Lehtinen (FL-27)

Other Noteworthy Races

- Immigration as key issue in 2 big Democratic wins:
  - Sinema (D) defeated McSally (R) in AZ Sen.
  - Rosen (D) defeated Heller (R) in NV Sen.
- But some Republicans did win key statewide races where they drew contrasts on immigration:
  - Cruz (R) defeated O'Rourke (D) in TX Sen.
  - Abbott (R) defeated Valdez (D) in TX Gov.
  - Hawley (R) defeated McCaskell (D) in MO Sen.
  - Kemp (R) defeated Abrams (D) in GA Gov.
A Growing Geographic and Demographic Divide

- 2018 reflected a clear divide in terms of geography
  - Democrats dominated in urban areas and flipped suburban areas
  - Republicans remained dominant in rural areas and exurbs, especially in the Deep South
- By 2040, approximately 70 percent of Americans will live in the 15 largest states.

U.S. Cities are Home to 62.7 Percent of the U.S. Population, but Comprise Just 3.5 Percent of Land Area

Diversity Is a Growing Political Fault Line

Another way of looking at it: in January, House Dems will represent:

- 79% of all Asians
- 72% of all Latinos
- 66% of all African-Americans
- 66% of all Clinton voters
- 60% of all college grads
- 54% of all House seats
- 45% of all whites
- 39% of all Trump voters
- 20% of America’s land area

2. SECURITY: Are immigrants and refugees threats or protectors?
3. ECONOMY: Are immigrants and refugees takers or givers?

Three Fears Drive This Divide

Coming Together

- Common American values and ideals.
- America is special.
- Pursue freedom, equality and the American dream.
- Get to know immigrants.
- We all want the best for our families.
- History as a land of opportunity and hope.

What to Expect in the 116th Congress

- Democratic House will prioritize Dreamers and TPS.
- Republican Senate may try to tie Dreamers/TPS to border security, enforcement.
- The Trump administration wants wall, cuts to legal immigration, and the scaling back of asylum.
Possible Immigration Developments

- Shutdown in December?
- Will the Courts end DACA, TPS?
- The 2020 Election?
