Taking action with NYSenate.gov

We encourage you to use the tools available on NYSenate.gov to let your voice be heard. Here are a few features that might be especially helpful.

Support or oppose bills

You can let your senator know where you stand by visiting any bill page and clicking “aye” or “nay”. You can also “follow” the bill, which allows you to track it as it moves through the senate, assembly, and the governor’s office. You will automatically receive email alerts (such as this one) when there is significant legislative activity related to bills that you support or oppose.

Bill Alerts

You can subscribe to receive email alerts when important events occur in the life cycle of a bill that you are interested. You can subscribe to receive updates on any bill, and you have the option of auto-subscribing when you support or oppose bills. You will continue to receive alerts on a bill in the event it is reintroduced under a different print number in a subsequent legislative term.

Find and follow issues

When a senator posts content — whether it be a bill, resolution, an article, or a press release — they often tag it with the issue being addressed. On NYSenate.gov, you can “follow” the issues you care about. To find them, check out the issue explorer. When you follow an issue, relevant content will appear on your dashboard.

Stay informed with your personal dashboard

Check your dashboard from time to time, where you can learn about action on bills you've supported, opposed, or followed. You can also review a list of all the petitions you've signed.
