

America's Legislators Back to School Program

A Program of the Trust for Representative Democracy

Middle/Junior High School Students Evaluation Form 2013/2014 School Year

Student, please answer the following questions and return this form to your teacher. Teacher, please mail to: NCSL, 7700 East 1st Place, Denver, CO 80230, or fax to (303) 364-7800, Attn.: Trust for Representative Democracy. You may also complete this form online at <http://www.ncsl.org/default.aspx?tabid=15784>.

1. What state do you live in? _____
2. What grade are you in? 6th 7th 8th 9th
3. Did your class watch the "You Rule" video? Yes No
4. If yes to #3, how would you rate the video? Excellent Good Fair Poor
5. Did your class receive the "You Rule" booklet? Yes No
6. If yes to #5, how would you rate the booklet? Excellent Good Fair Poor
7. If no to #5, did your class receive a different booklet? Yes No
 What was the title? _____
 How would you rate the booklet? Excellent Good Fair Poor

8. Please indicate (by checking the appropriate box) how you feel about the following statements:	Agree Strongly	Agree	Disagree	Disagree Strongly
Government affects my everyday life, so I need to pay attention.
Most elected officials are everyday people who commit themselves to public service.
Debate, disagreement and compromise are a natural part of the legislative process.
The duty of a citizen is to pay attention to government and politics and contact elected officials about issues and problems.
A legislator visit to a classroom is a good way to learn about civics and government.
I have an understanding of our system of representative democracy.
I will register and vote when I am eligible.

9. Do you think the America's Legislators Back to School Program is a good program?
 Yes No
10. Tell us one thing you learned from the legislator. (Please use the back of this form, if necessary.) _____

Your answers will be used to evaluate the America's Legislators Back to School Program and the materials provided by the National Conference of State Legislatures. Your words may be used in future promotional pieces. Questions? Call (303) 364-7700, or send an email to BTSP@ncsl.org.