NCSL/The Annie E. Casey Foundation Partnership on Family Economic Success and Child Welfare: How are the Kids Doing in Your State? (Breakfast)

Wednesday, August 14, 2013, 7:00-8:15am

Speaker Biography

Lisa M. Hamilton
Vice President, External Affairs
Annie E. Casey Foundation

As Vice President of External Affairs with the Annie E. Casey Foundation, Lisa M. Hamilton leads the organization’s Policy Reform and Advocacy work including the KIDS COUNT initiative, Strategic Communications, and partnerships with policy associations, national child and family nonprofits, and philanthropic affinity organizations. Before joining the Foundation, Hamilton enjoyed a 14-year career with UPS. Most recently, she served as vice president of the UPS corporate public relations group directing global media relations, reputation management, and products and services announcements. Prior to that, she was President of the UPS Foundation, responsible for directing its global philanthropic and volunteerism programs. She began her career at UPS in 1996 as a member of the Corporate Tax Department. In 2003, she was named Program Manager of the UPS Foundation, and later served as a Public Affairs Manager in Washington, D.C., where she focused on tax, financial services, and legal reform issues. Hamilton was appointed to the Casey Foundation’s Board of Trustees in October 2008.

Hamilton serves on the Board of Directors of the Jim Casey Youth Opportunities Initiative, Board of Trustees of the Southern Education Foundation, and the Public Policy Committee of the Council on Foundations.

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, Hamilton earned a Bachelor’s Degree in Commerce from the University of Virginia and a Law Degree from the University of Michigan.